Benefits of Advertising

Partner with us to share your message with our vibrant community.

As an advertiser, your business will:

- Reach large, engaged audiences across multiple concerts
- Gain prominent visibility throughout our 40th anniversary season
- Enjoy affordable, high-impact exposure

Additional partnership benefits include:

- 1/2 page and up - business name listed on the chorus website for the entire concert season, through July 31, 2027
- Priority options to advertise at special events
- The opportunity to support one of Northeast Ohio's premiere performing arts organizations and our mission of #BringingPeopleTogetherThroughMusic

About Cuyahoga Valley Choral Arts

Welcome to Cuyahoga Valley Choral Arts. Originally established in 1986 under Cuyahoga Falls Parks and Recreation as the Cuyahoga Falls Community Chorus, we transitioned to a nonprofit organization in August 2023. Today, Cuyahoga Valley Choral Arts oversees two distinct ensembles.

The Cuyahoga Valley Community Chorus is a welcoming, non-auditioned ensemble that performs at a diverse range of events, from the Cleveland Cavaliers and Rubber Ducks to local civic celebrations and commemorations. We also engage directly with the community through outreach concerts at nursing and retirement homes, as well as our highly anticipated public performances at St. Luke's Lutheran Church.

Additionally, we proudly established the Cuyahoga Valley Children's Choir. In partnership with Urban Vision, this program serves children ages 8 through 12 and is based in Akron's North Hill community.

Our programs are guided by a dedicated artistic team. Edward Arthur "Ted" Shure currently serves as Artistic Director, celebrating his 23rd season. He works alongside Associate Conductor Colleen Coyle Miller, who also directs the Children's Choir, and pianist John Eley, who accompanies both ensembles.

Whether you are interested in joining as a member or attending a performance, we invite you to be a part of our musical community.
